Mission, Vision, and Core Values

Mission

Our Mission is to establish a community of Christian thinkers, where members can grow spiritually and academically, develop in character, and witness in the contemporary world. We believe in a future where our graduates are ready to impact their society by building bridges between Orthodox Christianity and the humanities through distance education.

Vision

Our Vision is to be a pioneering global Orthodox Christian University dedicated to the Humanities which engages with and addresses the challenges of the contemporary world through Eastern Christian wisdom.
